The Hamel Community Building is owned by the City of Medina, and is operated through an agreement with the Hamel Lions Club.

The Hamel Community Building opened in January 2005. The facility is primarily a result of donations raised in the local community through the efforts of the Hamel Lions Club.

Amenities

The Hamel Community Building holds 120 people at tables for receptions, or up to 150 people for speaking style events. The interior assembly hall has large windows, and a vaulted ceiling complete with pendant lighting and fans.

The facility also has interior and exterior bathrooms, drinking fountains, coat area, and air-conditioning, 15 rectangular tables, 15 round tables and 150 chairs for set-up, a kitchenette with a service window, an industrial refrigerator and freezer, stainless steel counters and sink area. Our renters may also enjoy the rear covered patio with picnic tables and an outdoor fire pit.
