Profile of the City of Medina

The City of Medina has been an incorporated city since 1974 and has a population of about 7,600 people. The community continues to experience rural-residential, urban-residential, and commercial growth in what has historically been a fairly predominant rural setting. Most of Medina's commercial and higher-density residential growth is guided to progress along the Trunk Highway 55 Corridor. Medina consists of 26 square miles, with approximately 28% of the land cover consisting of water (wetlands, lakes, etc.).

Twenty-five full-time employees are employed by the City of Medina. The City Administrator is the chief administrative officer for the City. Four department heads report to the Administrator, including the Public Works Director, Planning Director, Finance Director and Police Chief/Public Safety Director.

The Police Department consists of 12 licensed officers, two full-time administrative assistants, and two part-time community service officers. Of the 12 licensed officers, the department has a chief, two sergeants, seven patrol officers, an investigator, and a member on the West Metro Drug Taskforce. The Police Department responds to calls for service and all types of emergency situations throughout the City of Medina and Loretto. Our mission is to protect and serve the citizens of Medina and their property to the best of our ability.

Profile of the Police Officer Position

The Police Officer position performs non-supervisory, patrol and police work in support of law enforcement, crime detection/prevention and investigation, traffic control, emergency response, and public assistance activities. Responsible for minimal administrative functions; assists with some educational and safety programs in public schools; and provides law enforcement at community functions. Majority of time is spent responding to calls to enforce laws and patrolling to protect the property and serve the residents of the community.

Summary of Benefits and Wages

The City believes strongly in attracting and retaining quality employees. The starting wage for this position is competitive to other cities ranked in our class size, at $36.96 to $47.84, per hour, DOQ. We also offer a continuous service incentive of 3% at 10 years of service and 6% at 15 years of service added to the base pay.

In addition, Medina offers one of the best benefit packages amongst cities within our class size. The City pays 100% of the health insurance premium for full-time employees electing single coverage and up to $1,753 per month for full-time employees electing family coverage. Additionally, the City contributes $3,000 annually toward the employee's HRA or HSA account. The City also pays for 100% of the single and family dental policy and pays a life insurance premium for a $50,000 term life policy. Retirement plan is contributed through MN PERA (Public Employee Retirement Association). As a public employee, 11.8% of your pay will be contributed to PERA Police and Fire; the City will contribute an additional 17.7% into your account. This position is part of a union with Law Enforcement Labor Services, Inc. (LOCAL #36).
